

LE GENERAL

Once the chief commander of the Dutch armed forces, he found life far too serious for the little child deep inside him.

Today, he hosts parties and events as amusing himself and other people brings him great joy.

Le Général will treat your audience like a gentleman with playful charm and will not hesitate to utilize military discipline if necessary.

The costume is the original uniform of Queen Wilhelmina's chamberlord and a museumpiece of craftsmanship.

This is why Le Général does not appreciate rain.

Le Général welcomes people with his vibrating glove and a rose or cigar upon arrival.

A great way to instantly pull people from the trenches of their minds into the present moment.

Coen Aerts

Performance artist, Coen Aerts, mastered interaction as a tool to reach transformative potential in the real time, real space moment with the audience.

Le Général opens comfort barriers and creates a playful space to explore experiences that once seemed unimaginable.
